

Monday April 13th - Coping with Covid - Morning

Laugh it off: Monday at traffic court a lady stood before the judge for running a red light. “Before I assess your fine,” he said, “What do you do for a living?” “I’m a schoolteacher,” she replied. The judge stood up and said, “I have waited 20 years for a schoolteacher to come before me and it has finally happened. I want you to sit down at the table there and write 500 times, ‘I will not run a red light again.’”

God’s Comfort: Psalm 111:1-5 1 Praise the Lord. I will extol the Lord with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly. 2 Great are the works of the Lord; they are pondered by all who delight in them. 3 Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness endures forever. 4 He has caused his wonders to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and compassionate. 5 He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

Pray daily - God is easy to talk to. Jesus, yesterday we remembered that you are the resurrection because it was written that you would suffer and then rise from the dead on the third day. We thank you for your promise that whosoever believes in you, though they are dead, they shall live and if we live and believe in you, we shall never die. Allow us to live this day in the knowledge that we will never die. Also allow us to teach repentance and remission of sins to those around us so that they too will not die. This we ask in Jesus’ name. Amen

God’s Comfort: John 20:19-23 19It was the first day of the week, and that very evening, while the disciples were together with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them. “Peace be with you!” He said to them. 20After He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. 21Again Jesus said to them, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, so also, I am sending you.” 22When He had said this, He breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. 23If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld.”

Writing for Fun: Tell a story about a stuffed animal, either yours or your children’s

Sample Stuffed Animal: On our bed are 5 stuffed animals; 2 adult rabbits, Pooh, a white rabbit, a fox, and an otter. When we only had two grandkids, we only had two rabbits. Every time they visited, they ran upstairs to our bed, grabbed the rabbits that were “theirs,” and played with them all day. When they left, the rabbits went back on the bed. Each new grandchild got their own stuffed animal. Judah is Pooh, Felicity is the baby rabbit, Seth the fox, and Gideon the otter. Every morning when we make the bed, we put our family back on it as well and are reminded of them all day.	Your Easter List:

Monday April 13th - Coping with Covid - Supper

Laugh it off: Doctor Sims went to the hospital to see one of her patients. The patient had major surgery to both of her hands. 'Doctor,' he asked, dramatically holding up his heavily bandaged hands. 'Will I be able to play the piano when these bandages come off?' 'I don't see why not,' answers Doctor Sims. 'That's strange,' he replied, 'I wasn't able to play it before.'

When Artur Schnabel, Australian pianist, was asked the secret of piano playing, he replied, "I always make sure that the lid over the keyboard is open before I start to play."

God's Comfort: Matthew 28:16-20 16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. 17 When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. 18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.

And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
