Friday April 24th - Coping with Covid - Morning

Laugh it off: A travel agent saw an older lady and gentleman looking in the shop window at the destination posters. The agent had had a good week and the couple gave him a feeling of generosity. He called them in and said, 'I know you could never hope to have a holiday, so I am sending you to a fabulous resort at my expense. I won't take no for an answer.' His secretary confirmed two flight tickets and booked a five-star hotel. The couple accepted and went on their way. A month later the lady visited his shop. 'Did you like your holiday?' he asked. I've come to thank you,' she answered. 'It was excellent. But who was the old guy I shared the room with?'

God's Comfort: Prov 22:1-4 A good name is more desirable than great riches; to be esteemed is better than silver or gold. 2 Rich and poor have this in common: The Lord is the Maker of them all. 3 The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty. 4 Humility is the fear of the Lord; its wages are riches and honor and life. Psalm 125:1-2 Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever. 2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the Lord surrounds his people both now and forevermore.

Pray daily - God is easy to talk to: Lord, help me not to lean on my own understanding, but in everything acknowledge You, so that You can direct my words, thoughts, and actions. In

Laugh it off: Jackson, applied to register his boat. After several weeks, he telephoned the agency office. The young woman was helpful and polite. I'll check,' she replied happily. In seconds she had found his application, told him his boat was registered, and apologized for the delay. Stunned by her competence and good manners, Jackson said, 'Thanked you. I have never received such courteous treatment from a government agency.' 'Oh, thank you,' she replied, 'I guess it's just that I started here today.'

God's Comfort: Acts 4:32-35 32 All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had. 33 With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And God's grace was so powerfully at work in them all 34 that there were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales 35 and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need.

Laugh it off: Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote. - George Jean Nathan American editor - - In democracy it's your vote that counts; In feudalism it's your count that votes. - Mogens Jallberg - - 'Politics is supposed to be the second oldest profession. I have come to realize that it bears an awfully close resemblance to the first.' - Ronald Reagan

God's Comfort: Deuteronomy 5:12-15 12 "Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the Lord your God has commanded you. 13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 14 but the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your ox, your donkey or any of your animals, nor any foreigner residing in your towns, so that your male and female servants may rest, as you do. 15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the Lord your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the Lord your

God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.
