

Saturday, June 6th - Coping with Covid - Morning

Laugh it off: On a fishing trip to a remote lake in Northern Quebec, I asked the outfitter, “Do you stay here during the winter?” “No,” he said. “The snow gets too deep. We can’t get supplies in. Like many Canadians, I go south for the winter.” “Where do you go?” I said. “Vermont.”

God’s Comfort: Prov 28:22, 23, 25 22 A man with an evil eye hastens after riches and does not consider that poverty will come upon him. 23 He who rebukes a man will find more favor afterward than he who flatters with the tongue. 25 He, who is of a proud heart, stirs up strife, but he who trusts in the Lord will be prospered. Psalm 146:8-10 8 The Lord opens the eyes of the blind; The Lord raises those who are bowed down; The Lord loves the righteous. 9 The Lord watches over the strangers; He relieves the fatherless and widow; But the way of the wicked He turns upside down. 10 The Lord shall reign forever - Your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise the Lord!

Pray Daily – God is easy to talk to:

Dear God, most merciful father, make me more watchful of the time that I give to useless thoughts and words. Save me from cutting words, which make deeper impressions than can be cut with sharp tools. Forgive me for the hours that have not been profitable; I wish I had them back, for my heart and mind have need of them. Thank you and Amen

Saturday, June 6th - Coping with Covid - Supper

Laugh it off: Don't knock the weather. If it didn't change once in a while, nine tenths of the people couldn't start a conversation. -- Electricity is really just organized lightning. - George Carlin -- It's been raining so much in Los Angeles that the Chia Pet I threw in the garbage is now blocking my entire driveway. - Jay Leno.

God's Comfort: Genesis 8:6-12 6 So it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. 7 Then he sent out a raven, which kept going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth. 8 He also sent out from himself a dove, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground. 9 But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, and she returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her and drew her into the ark to himself. 10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark. 11 Then the dove came to him in the evening, and behold, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in her mouth; and Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. 12 So he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return again to him anymore.
